

Course Syllabus

First Semester 2026

Instructor : O O Baik

Title	The Biblical Interpretation		class
			grade	credit
Course Description	This lecture is a course analyzing the theological methodology and epistemology as the basic of theology, and also by proving the inerrancy of the Bible. through that, we can learn the authority of the Bible which is the base of the Christian faith.
text	The Hidden Intention Of God(Ki Chan Baik, Dream & Will Press, 2007)
recommended readings	1. Norman L. Geisler, CHALLENGES TO INERRANCY: A Theological Response , trans. by Sung-Soo Kwon, Seoul: Emmaus Publishing House, 1988. 2. Erwin W. Lutzer, Seven Reasons Why YOU CAN TRUST THE BIBLE , trans. by Jong-Won Lim, Seoul: Precept Ministries, 2000. 3. John MacArthur, HOW TO GET THE MOST FROM GOD'S WORD , Seoul: Word of Life Press, 2008.
Schedule of Instruction
1 week	orientation	8 week	the secular epistemology
2 week	the necessity of the theological education	9 week	the Christian epistemology
3 week	the essence of theology	10 week	the authority of the Bible
4 week	the necessity of the right theology	11 week	the inspiration of the Bible
5 week	the paradigm of the right theology	12 week	the interpretation of the Bible
6 week	the hidden intention of God	13 week	the inerrancy of the Bible
7 week	what is epistemology	14 week	the canonization of the Bible and translations
The method of teaching		evaluation and rate
lecture		mid-test(Report) 50 % attendance 50 %		